

Psalm 91

Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty
I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

Surely he will save you from the fowler's snare
and from the deadly pestilence.

He will cover you with his feathers,
and under his wings you will find refuge;
his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.

You will not fear the terror of night,
nor the arrow that flies by day,
nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness,
nor the plague that destroys at midday.

A thousand may fall at your side,
ten thousand at your right hand,
but it will not come near you.

You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.

If you say, "The LORD is my refuge," and you make the Most High your dwelling,
no harm will overtake you,
no disaster will come near your tent.

For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways;

they will lift you up in their hands,

so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.

You will tread on the lion and the cobra;

you will trample the great lion and the serpent.

"Because he loves me," says the LORD, "I will rescue him;
I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name.

He will call on me, and I will answer him;

I will be with him in trouble,

I will deliver him and honour him.

With long life I will satisfy him
and show him my salvation."

CHURCH

We praise God for the safe delivery of Gabriel Elias Jenkinson and offer our congratulations and blessings to Nathaniel and Lea on becoming proud parents.

Your prayers for Gabriel will be greatly appreciated as he has an infection and confined to hospital.

On this Mothering Sunday we thank God for all our mothers and pray for God's blessing and protection over them and their families.

Psalm 121

I lift up my eyes to the mountains—where does my help come from?
My help comes from the LORD,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

He will not let your foot slip—he who watches over you will not slumber; indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

The LORD watches over you—
the LORD is your shade at your right hand;
the sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.

The LORD will keep you from all harm—
he will watch over your life;
the LORD will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.

China Appeal

Praise God and thank you to everyone for your amazing generosity in your gifts for International

International China Concern 国际关心中国慈善协会

China Concern's special appeal. We have sent exactly £9,000 and Judy Elliot and staff are so very very grateful.
The appeal remains open as the additional need is still on going.

Alpha

This weeks topic is "Does God Heal Today?" and we have set up a WhatsApp group for all current attendees.

Early Morning Prayer Meeting Every Tuesday from 6.30—7.30am

A wonderful opportunity to meet and pray together at the start of the day, praying especially for New Life Church ministries, the needs of our people and for our nation particularly over the Coronavirus outbreak. We start with a cuppa and no problem if you need to leave before 7.30am.
(New Life Church believes all ministries are birthed and then sustained in prayer).

Baptisms—Easter Sunday (12th April)

We will still be baptising believers, possibly on Easter Sunday, but most likely delayed until we can all congregate together again for worship.

Missing Meals for Missions

Hopefully we've all taken up the challenge of missing meals during this coming month and making equivalent donations.

As we can't meet together next Sunday evening, please send in your donations to the church at your convenience.

Letter from the Church Elders

A letter dated 20th March has been circulated to all the church members on email. Paper copies are available on request and available to people who are not signed up members.

Memorial for Jeremy Naylor

Thank you to all who made gifts in memory of our dear brother Jeremy. We are liaising with the family to obtain a seat with the appropriate brass plaque.

National call to prayer This evening 7:00pm

A national call to pray has been issued by the Presidents of Churches Together in England, asking everyone to light a candle in the windows of our homes as a "visible symbol of the light of life, Jesus Christ, our source and hope in prayer."
